1976-77 OUTLOOK

CIPRIANO VIEWS 1976-77 WITH CAUTIOUS OPTIMISM

by BILL BENNETT Assistant Sports Information Director

Nebraska head coach Joe Cipriano is hoping that two returning starters, three top junior college prospects and the new Nebraska Sports Center can find the answers to a successful basketball season in 1976–77.

One of the first questions that Cipriano, his staff and his players must positively answer is overcoming the loss of three starters from last year's 19–8 team, the third most successful season in Husker basketball history.

In 1975–76, Nebraska was paced by senior starters, guards Jerry Fort (6-3) and Steve Willis (5-10), along with center Larry Cox (6-6). Cipriano realizes that replacing those three, especially Fort, who was a three-time All Big 8 performer and Nebraska's all time leading scorer with 1882 points, will be a tough job.

But making the job a little easier will be the presence of nine lettermen, led by last year's starting forwards, seniors Bob Siegel (6-7) and Allen Holder (6-4).

Siegel has been starting since his sophomore year, while Holder's first start was in 1975 after transferring to Nebraska from Seminole, Okla. Junior College (JC).

Last year, Siegel averaged 10.4-points and 5.9-rebounds a game, while Holder averaged 5.7-points and 5.0-rebounds a game.

Pacing Nebraska's other lettermen will be sophomores, guard Brian Banks (6-1) and center Carl McPipe (6-8), along with senior center-forward Rickey Harris (6-7). Banks and McPipe picked up valuable experience as freshmen and Banks should be in line for a starting guard spot in '76. Harris, who has been the Huskers sixth man the last two years, will provide Nebraska's front line with needed depth. Rounding out the Cornhusker lettermen are juniors, guard Eric Coard (6-1) and forward Terry Novak (6-4), along with sophomores, forward Val Martin (6-7) and center-forward Curt Hedberg (6-8).

Adding to the Huskers' prospects for 1976-77 are their five new recruits, led by JC transfers, guard James Caldwell (6-3) from the College of the Desert in Palm Desert, Calif., forward Stanley 'Skeeter' Jackson (6-7) from Seminole, Okla. JC and center Herman 'Bo' Jackson (6-8) from Oklahoma City, Okla. Southwestern JC.

Caldwell was the top JC scorer in the nation last year with a 36.1 average. 'Skeeter' Jackson averaged 19.1-points and 14.0-rebounds a game, while 'Bo' Jackson averaged 23-points and 14-rebounds a contest.

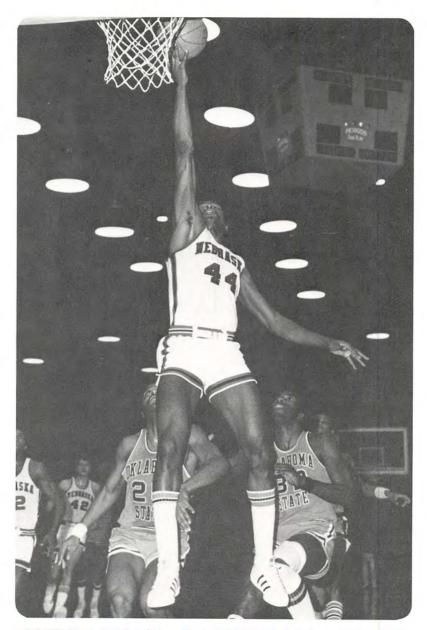

Rounding out Nebraska's recruiting year are two All State high school performers, forward Mark McVicker (6-7) from Hastings, Neb. and guard Paul McDonald (6-4) fro mChisholm, Minn. Last year, McVicker averaged 21-points and 13-rebounds a game, while McDonald averaged 29.8-points a game.

As a team in 1975–76, Nebraska's strong point was defense, ranking eighth nationally in overall team defense, allowing the opposition 62.8-points a game. In the Big 8, the Huskers a'lowed only 62.4-points a game, which was an important factor in the Cornhuskers' 10–4 league record, good for third place. Cipriano will again stress defense in 1976–77.

Another factor regarding this year's Nebraska team is the Huskers tough schedule. Seven of Nebraska's 11 nonleague games are on the road, against such basketball powers as Washington (Nov. 29), Hawaii (Dec. 2–3) and South Carolina (Jan. 3).

"The tough preseason schedule is a challenge our team must accept, to prepare it for the difficult Big 8 race," Cipriano said. "And if our recruits, particularly our JC transfers, can come through for us and combine with the talents of Siegel, Holder and our other lettermen, we will be a competitive basketball team."

The Huskers will open their season on Nov. 27 against the University of Iowa in the new, 15,008 Nebraska Sports Center, located on the State Fairgrounds. The Center replaces The Coliseum, which had been Nebraska's home since 1926.

NEBRASKA'S BASKETBALL STAFF

JOE CIPRIANO Head Basketball Coach University of Nebraska

Joe Cipriano, beginning his 14th year as head mentor, is the winningest coach in Nebraska's 79-year basketball heritage.

Since arriving on the Nebraska scene back in 1963, 'Cip' has an overall Husker record of 184 wins against 149 losses, 98 more wins than any previous Cornhusker coach. His overall mark is 227–184.

Cipriano came to NU during the fall of 1963 after being head coach at the University of Idaho for three years. His records at Idaho were 10–16, 13–13 and 20–6.

So why would a man leave a basketball program that just finished a highly successful 20–6 season and take the head coaching job at Nebraska, a school that hadn't had a winner in 13 years and had finished above the .500 mark only twice in the previous 26?

"It was a helluva challenge," Cipriano said. "There was only one way for the Nebraska program to go and that was up. There was a bright future to be offered and a chance to compete in a good basketball conference like the Big 8."

Cipriano started building his program early as the 1963–64 Husker freshman team went undefeated. But even Cipriano admitted that it probably would take three or four years for the Huskers to reach the .500 mark.

But a winning season would come faster than that and it was a lot better than .500. Cip's first team was 7-18, then 10-16 and in 1965-66 he reached one of the heights in his young career when his third-year Cornhusker squad finished 20-5.

That Husker team finished second in the Big 8, garnered Cip the conference Coach of the Year award and saw Nebraska rank 11th nationally in the final Associated Press Poll.

The next year, the Huskers went to the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) in New York and finished the year with a 16–9 mark. That team was the first Nebraska and Big 8 squad to play in the NIT.

Nebraska won the Big 8 Pre-season Basketball Tournament during the 1967–68 campaign, the only Husker team ever to accomplish that feat. That team went 15–10.

In 1968–69 the Cornhuskers finished 12–14 but rebounded the following two years with highly successful 16–9 and 18–8 records.

During the early '70's, except for 1972–73, the Huskers have either been a solid contender or a key factor in the Big 8 title race. Cip's marks from 1971–75 have been 14–12 (1971–72), 9–17 (1972–73), 14–12 (1973–74) and 14–12 (1974–75).

Last year, Cipriano led Nebraska to its third most successful basketball season in history. Behind senior starters Jerry Fort (guard), Steve Willis (guard) and Larry Cox (center), the Cornhuskers finished 19–8 overall and 10–4 in the Big 8, good for third place.

Cipnano grew up in Sumas, Washington, and played his high school ball at nearby Nooksac Valley High School before being recruited by former NU Athletic Director Tippy Dye to p'ay for him at the University of Washington. Cipriano started for three years at Washington and during that span (1950-51 to 1952-53) the Huskies went 79-15, won the Pacific Coast title all three years and finished third in the NCAA tournament in 1953. He was selected to play in the 1953 East-West Shrine Game in New York.

After graduating from Washington in 1953, Cipriano played for the AAU Buchan Bakers of Seattle for three years as the Bakers toured the Orient and Europe. He served as playercoach on the European trip and that's where the coaching bug hit him.

When he returned to the States, Cip coached high school ball for one year before Dye brought him back as his freshmen coach at Washington. He coached the Huskies freshmen for three years—the last one under John Grayson—then took the head coaching job at Idaho in 1959-60.

In 1964, Cipriano started the highly successful Cornhusker Basketball School which runs through the month of June every year on the Lincoln campus and or one week each at the Nebraska Western College in Scottsbluff and Chadron State College.

Other honors Cipriano has accumulated while at Nebraska include being a member of Henry Iba's coaching staff at the 1972 Olympic Try-Out Camp at the Air Force Academy. In 1973, he conducted a series of clinics in Taiwan, Thailand and the Philippines on a United States Air Force sponsored tour. During the spring of '74, Cip was a member of the coaching staff at the Aloha Classic in Hawaii. He also took the Huskers on a summer tour of Italy in 1974.

HUSKER COACH JOE CIPRIANO LOOKS AT '76-77

Guards: "We lost our starting guards, Jerry Fort and Steve Willis, from last year's team and finding replacements for them will be one of our top priorities. Right now, Brian Banks, who saw a lot of action as a frosh last year, should be in line for one of the guard positions. Opposite Banks, the other guard spot is pretty much up for grabs between JC transfer James Caldwell, letterman Eric Coard and recruit Paul Mc-Donald. Also, to help bolster the guard ranks, Allen Holder, who started for us at forward last year, will probably be used as a swingman between the guard and forward positions. Allen's leadership would be a definite plus at the guard spot."

Forwards: "One of the forward spots will be handled by senior Bob Siegel, who has been starting for us since his sophomore year. Siegel's potential as a scorer and rebounder are unlimited and he should have his best campaign ever this year. Opposite Siegel, Holder will of course provide us with starting experience, but Stanley Jackson, our JC recruit from Seminole, Okla., may just be the one to watch. He is very mobile and a fine shooter. Others vying for the forward spot are lettermen Rickey Harris, Val Martin, Curt Hedberg and Terry Novak, along with recruit Mark McVicker. Both forward positions have a lot of potential and could be the strongest areas on our team."

Centers: "We also lost our starting center, Larry Cox, from last year's team, so finding a good postman is most important to us in 1976. And we do have several talented players who could fill Larry's shoes. Our JC recruit Herman Jackson is a very physical player and letterman Carl McPipe picked up some very valuable playing time as a freshman. Harris and Hedberg, who can also play forward, will be in that center competition too. Even though the post position does lack starting experience and great height, it doesn't lack physical ability and overall playing experience."

Overall: "Because of our tough nonconference schedule, we must very quickly find players who can fill the assignments at guard and center. The forward positions, because of all the starting and playing experience there, may have to be the driving force of our team during the early going. With the senior leadership from Siegel and Holder, along with the experience of our lettermen and the hoped for play from our recruits, we should be a competitive team in 1976-77."

Big 8 Race: Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma appear to be the strongest teams on paper. All three of these teams return 4 starters and had fine recruiting years. Kansas State returns guard Mike Evans and also landed some good high school talent. Oklahoma State and ourselves have some important people to replace before we know what we'll do and Colorado (Bill Blair) and Iowa State (Lynn Nance) will be under new coaches. And just like every year, the conference race will be as unpredictable as ever, but just as exciting as always."

CORNHUSKER BASKETBALL SCHOOL

More than 4,500 grade school, junior high, and high school athletes have attended the Cornhusker basketball school since it was started in June of 1964 by Nebraska basketball coach Joe Cipriano.

The athletes are housed on the Nebraska campus in sororities. The school lasts one month and includes four one-week sessions. Included in the day are three two-hour shifts, designed to give the athlete instructions in basic fundamentals, conditioning and actual playing experience.

Nebraska was the first school in the Big Eight to begin a clinic of this type and former Husker stand-outs Sam Martin, Bob Gratopp, Chuck Jura and Jerry Fort were all part of the Cornhusker basketball school.

The school is under the supervision of the Nebraska coaching staff, various high school coaches from around the state and senior graduates from the previous year Nebraska team.

The one week session is capped off with an All-Star game. The school is open to athletes from age 10 through the eleventh grade and as Cipriano states: "It's a great way for the athletes to learn the fundamentals of basketball and to compete against each other."

MOE IBA Assistant Coach

Moe Iba, son of retired Oklahoma State Coach Henry P. Iba, begins his seventh year as a Nebraska assistant coach. Before guiding the freshmen to a fine 19-5 record in his first two years at Nebraska, Moe was the head coach for four years at Memphis State University.

At Memphis State, Iba's first team had a 17-9 season and capped the season with an appearance in the National Invitational Tournament. MSU won its own Memphis State Classic and finished the season with the second best defense against scoring in the nation.

Iba went to Memphis State in August of 1966 after four highly successful seasons as an assistant to Don Haskins, at the University of Texas at El Paso. He compiled a 64-9 record with the frosh, while the varsity was winning 89, losing 20 and taking the NCAA championship in 1966.

Iba enjoyed a brilliant college basketball career, starting three years at Ok'ahoma State. He was considered the best long-range shooter in the Big Eight Conference, which he left via graduation in 1962.

An outstanding high school career at Stillwater High preceded Iba's entry into the college ranks. He was selected to play in the High School All America game at Hutchinson, Kansas after his graduation in 1957.

LONNIE PORTER Assistant Coach

Lonnie Porter begins his fifth year as a Nebraska assistant coach. Before coming to Nebraska, Porter was a successful high school coach at Denver's Manual High School.

For this effort, he was named Denver Public League Coach of the Year and Colorado High School Athletic Association Basketball Coach of the Year.

After a brilliant playing career at Adams State College in Alamosa, Colo., Porter started his coaching career with the Adams State frosh in 1965-66. He left the coaching ranks for a year after that, but returned to work with the Manual sophomore and junior varsity teams for three years before becoming head coach.

At Adams State, Porter became the first player ever to be named to the All Rocky Mountain Conference team four times, won the conference scoring title three times and was All American in 1965.

A native of Indianapolis, Ind., he graduated from East Waterloo (Iowa), High School in 1961. He earned the B.A. Degree in physical education from Adams State in 1965 and the M.A. in administration from the same school a year later.

1976-77 Outlook:

Northwestern

lowa's basketball record jumped from 10-16 to 19-10 in two years under Coach Lute Olson, but it doesn't seem likely the Hawkeyes can continue that remarkable improvement rate this season.

Five key players have graduated including guard Scott Thompson, the leading scorer, forward Dan Frost, the No. 2 rebounder and No. 3 scorer.

The key returnees are Bruce (Sky) King, who will probably move from forward to center, and guard Cal Wulfsberg.

Series History: Iowa defeated Nebraska 72-65 last year in Iowa City. The Hawkeyes also lead the overall series 11-7.

1976-77 Outlook:

Another basketball recruiting season has come to an end for University of Washington coach Marv Harshman and he hardly could be happier, as five top high school prospects and one junior college transfer signed letters of intent to play for the Huskies.

"This was the best group of players I've recruited since I've been here." said Harshman, who this fall will begin his sixth year at the Husky helm.

With six seniors from his 22-win, six-loss, 1975-76 squad gone, along with Greg Jack, reserve forward who will pass up last year to enter medical school, Harshman had definite holes to fill. His immediate needs were to find a replacement for Lars Hansen, 6-10 forward and Clarence Ramsev, 6-4 guard.

Series History: In 1975-76, Washington beat Nebraska 75-63 in Lincoln. The Huskies also lead the overall series 0-6.

Newcomers to Watch: Jay Bartholomew (F, 6-4, Jr.); Dave Johnson (G, 6-0, So.); Mark Lovelace (G, 6-4, Jr.); Tom Zeimantz (F, 6-6, Jr.).

1976-77 Outlook:

Date

Vulcan coach Jimmy Yagi is looking forward to a better team than the 1975-76 squad that compiled a 17-11 mark. He will have five veterans, including 6-5 forward Gilbert Hicks (20 points and 10 rebounds per game) for his senior year. Yagi expects a stronger front line with more depth to boost the team's overall play by increasing the rebounding from last year's 40-per game output. He also anticipates strong scoring, similar to last year's 93-point per game mark. Top newcomers are expected to be 6-4 forward Jay Bartholomew, who can slam dunk, and 6-0 guard Dave Johnson.

Series History: This will be the first Nebraska-Hawail (Hilo) confrontation.

1976-77 Outlook:

Larry Little, who guided Centenary to a 100-33 record the past five years, has the unenviable task of trying to turn Hawaii's basketball fortunes completely around without the benefit of any returning starters.

The Rainbow Warriors, after going through 23-5, 24-3, 16-10, 19-9, and 16-11 seasons since 1970, tumbled to a 11-16 record last season. Counted on to lead the team this year will be 6-2 junior guard Wayne Crowe, who stepped into the starting role late in the season and won the team's Most Inspirational Player Award. Returning lettermen who will also be counted on for the team's success include 6-8 sophomore forward Ed Torres, 6-3 senior guard Packy Ryan, 6-0 senior guard Gary Gray, 6-10 senior center George Ritter, and 6-6 senior Steve Borup.

Series History: Hawaii leads the Husker-Rainbow series 2-0. Both teams last met in 1967-68, when Hawaii defeated the Huskers 82-74 and 86-72 in Honolulu.

1976-77 Outlook:

With all five starters returning plus an extremely successful recruiting campaign. Minnesota could be a much stronger team this winter. This belief is based on two primary factors: (1) that all returning players are already familiar with coach Jim Dutcher's style thus cutting back on teaching time. and (2) this year UM will have something that was all but completely missing last year . . . a bench. In junior center Mike Thompson and senior guard Ray Williams, both All-Big Ten selections last year, Dutcher has a pair that can match up with any other pair in the nation. Based on the entire starting five returning, good recruits and Thompson and Williams. Minnesota just could be something else in '76-'77.

Series History: Minnesota leads the series 38-8. The Huskers and Gophers last played during the 1959-60 season, with Nebraska beating Minnesota 76-66 in Lincoln.

1976-77 Outlook:

An air of optimism surrounds the University of Illinois basketball camp in 1976-77 as Lou Henson enters his second season of directing Illini fortunes.

With only two of the Illini's five starters returning, an outside observer might frown upon the team's chances to improve on its 14-13 record of last season, but just the opposite is true. Henson's revolving shuttle system produced the school's first winning mark in three years and fans are expecting even more success this time around.

Heading the list of six lettermen is 6-9 junior forward Rich Adams, an all-Big Ten honorable mention selection who averaged 16 points per game last season.

Series History: Illinois leads the series 6-1. Last year in Lincoln, the Illini beat Nebraska 60-58.

1976-77 Outlook:

Posting its best record in six seasons with a 12-15 mark in 1975-76, skipper Tex Winter has the Wildcats directed on the right course.

Winter piloted the Wildcats to their most victories since a 14-10 record in 1968-69 and in the process achieved such notable deeds as winning their first road game in 19 attempts over a three year period (NU won five away games in '75-76) and registering their first victory in eight tries over Kentuckey, the 1976 NIT champion.

Northwestern's program is in high gear and the leader of the Wildcat pack is three year starter Billy McKinney. Often compared to Nate Archibald and certainly as crowd pleasing and electrifying, the 60 backcourter was the leading scorer (19.8) and became Northwestern's all-time scoring leader (1.384).

Series History: In the series, Nebraska and Northwestern are tied at 1-1. Last year in Lincoln, the Huskers beat the Wildcats 79-68.

1976-77 Outlook:

All-conference and all-district senior forward David Alvey heads Bearcat hopes for a 1976-77 improvement over the 7-17 disappoinment of last season. But the guy who last season became the school's all-time career point leader and paced the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association in the process must have more help this season.

Sixth-year Coach Bob Iglehart, whose teams have won but 14 MIAA games in five seasons, will call on sophomore Ted Espey and senior Doug Deskin to aid Alvey up front. Senior Dabe Batten and junior Tim Bell are the backcourt lettermen.

Letterman Steve Freel returns at center but the main hopes rest with freshmen Mark Adams and Russ Miller.

Series History: Nebraska leads the NU-NWMS series 6-0. Both teams last met in 1958-59, when the Huskers defeated Northwest Missouri 85-44 in Lincoln.

1976-77 Outlook:

Speed, guickness, and experience are the main gualities of the 1976-77 Mankato State University basketball team. Eight lettermen return, including starters Doug Probst, Gil Williams and Gene Glynn,

The Indians have several candidates for the remaining two starting positions, but one guard spot will probably be taken by sophomore Curt Clark. If this is the case, the Indians could have the quickest and smallest guards in the country. The other starting spot is up for grabs among returning lettermen Bernie Miller (Sr. 6-4), Mark Ostergaard (6-4, Jr.), Tom Fix (6-6, Soph.) and Bill Thompson (Soph. 6-6). Terry Seeman, a 6-3 junior guard will also provide bench strength for the Indians.

Series History: This will be the first meeting.

1976-77 Outlook:

The loss of all-time Gamecock scoring champlon Alex English, guard Mike Dunleavy, and third starter Bob Mathals to graduation throws the 1976-77 season into the category of "rebuilding year" for South Carolina.

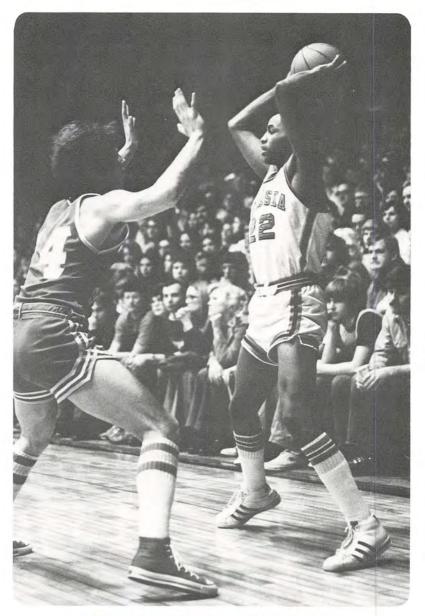

That's not to say, however, that the Gamecocks won't be competitive. South Carolina hasn't had a losing season in 11 years.

The top returnees are 6-4 senior forward Nate Davis, a spectacular leaper who averaged 15.9 points and 8.0 rebounds last season, and 6-0 guard Jack Gilloon, who scored at a 9.1 pace but is chiefly known for his playmaking. Gilloon turned in a school record 156 assists in 1975-76.

The future, however, is in the hands of the newcomers, led by 6-9 high school All-America Jim Graziano of Farmingdale, N.Y.

Series History: Nebraska leads the Husker-Gamecock series 1-0. In 1976 the Cornhuskers beat South Carolina 69-68 in Lincoln.

1976-77 Outlook:

Kansas State will return only two starters for 1976-77. However, they are good ones-quard Mike Evans and forward Larry Dassie.

Evans has thrilled Big Eight fans for two seasons with his long-range jumps, unbelievable moves and underwear-tight defense. A two-time allconference selection, he averaged 18 points per game for the 'Cats in 1975-76 but better than 23 per contest in KSU's last 12 outings.

The 6-5 Dassie came on like a gang-buster after experiencing earlyseason adjustment (from junior college) woes. In Kansas State's last eight contests the flashy forward averaged 12 points and 10 rebounds per game.

Series History: Kansas State leads the NU-KSU series 82-60. Last year. the Huskers beat K-State 65-59 in Manhattan, but lost to the Wildcats 65-53 in Lincoln.

1976-77 Outlook:

It's a new ball game under the youthful and talented BIII Blair. He has a good forward in 6-7 Greg Mueller and a fine young plvot in Larry Vaculik to start with, plus one of the better rookies last year in guard Emmet Lewis, who Blair feels can score 20 points per game. The Buffs brought in heralded guard Toney Ellis from Washington, D.C. to add backcourt quickness.

Series History: Colorado leads the Husker-Buffalo series 43-31. Last year, NU swept the series, beating the Buffs 66-64 in Boulder and 80-61 in Lincoln.

1976-77 Outlook:

Color Iowa State's basketball team green for 1976-77. The Cyclones may field one of the nation's youngest teams during the upcoming winter wars as it begins a massive rebuilding campaign from last year's 3-24 record.

The man-size job of coordinating the rebuilding falls upon first year Head Coach Lyn Nance, fresh from Kentucky's traditional program.

This year's will have no less than nine new faces, who will form a sound but untested nucleus for both today and tomorrow.

Series History: Nebraska leads the series 93-66. In 1975-76, the Huskers beat ISU twice, 66-56 in Ames and 82-66 in Linc

BIG EIGHT CONFERENCE TO INITIATE POST-SEASON TOURNAMENT AT CONCLUSION OF 1976-77 SEASON

The Big Eight Conference will implement a post-season tournament to decide the conference's representative to the NCAA Championships commencing with the 1976-77 season. The new tournament will be a single-elimination play-off system to be conducted at the close of the regular season. The first round play-off games will be played on the campus of the first-division teams with the semifinals and final to be played in Kansas City at Kemper Arena. If there is a tie at the conclusion of the regular season, the firstround site and/or pairings will be determined by the Commissioner on the basis of regular-season competition between the teams involved. Pairings for the post-season affair are to be made on the basis of standings at the conclusion of the regular season, with the first place team playing the eighth place squad; number two vs. number seven, etc. Teams one, four, five and eight will make up one bracket with the other bracket consisting of the four remaining teams. The first round playoffs for this season are scheduled for February 26, 1977. The semi-finals and final are slated for March 3-4. The Conference will continue to hold its preseason tournament in addition to the post-season event.

BOB DEVANEY

Athletic Director University of Nebraska

One of the greatest coaches in the history of American football, Bob Devaney is now turning his vast energies toward supervision of the entire athletic program at the University of Nebraska.

Nebraska has one of the finest athletic plants in the nation, thanks to Devaney's inspiration and leadership during the past 15 years.

Since becoming Athletic Director in 1967, Nebraska's Memorial Stadium has an enlarged (9,400) capacity of 76,400—largest in the Big 8—as well as an AstroTurf field and huge press box.

Since 1967, the Cornhuskers have a multi-purpose office building at the south end of Memorial Stadium, and they have an outdoor track facility— Ed Weir Stadium—and a baseball park.

Devaney also spear-headed a drive for the new NU Sports Center that resulted in the Nebraska Legislature voting a cigarette tax to finance a 15,008-seat basketball arena, with adjacent swimming complex and indoor track plant. Wrestling and gymnastics will also be housed in the Center, located at the Nebraska Fairgrounds adjacent to the NU campus.

Few coaches ever achieved the success Devaney did as headmaster of the Nebraska Cornhuskers from 1962 to 1972. During most of that span he was the "winningest coach in the nation," based on percentage of victories. He wound up with three straight Orange Bowl wins to go with his amazing record of nine bowl trips in 11 years, eight Big 8 titles, two national championships, two Outland Trophy winners, a Lombardi Trophy winner, a Heisman Trophy winner and numerous Coach of the Year and similar honors. Twice his teams won four straight titles—1963-1966 and 1969-1972.

In his final season, Devaney's 1972 Huskers went 9-2-1 with a 40-6 win over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, and Bob led the nation's active coaches with a lifetime record of 136-30-7 for an .806 winning percentage. That year, too, Johnny Rodgers won the Heisman Trophy and Rich Glover swept the Outland and Lombardi Trophies, a fete never equalled by any other school. Devaney was named Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Washington Touchdown Club and the Football Writers Association after Nebraska's Cornhuskers were undefeated in 13 games in 1971, sweeping to the national championship after winning the Game of the Century against Oklahoma, 35-31.

It was the second-straight national championship for Nebraska. The 1970 team was also undefeated (11-0-1), and during the span of 1969 to 1972, the Huskers went 32 games without a defeat. After Nebraska defeated LSU in the 1971 Orange Bowl game to win its first national title, former President Richard Nixon came to Lincoln to bestow a presidential plaque upon Devaney and co-captains Dan Schneiss and Jerry Murtaugh.

The Devaney Huskers reaped countless honors during those two years— AP and UPI trophies, the Grantland Rice Trophy, the MacArthur Bowl, Big 8 and Orange Bowl trophies and Coach of the Year by the Football News.

All Star games were old hat for Devaney who coached in many postseason classics such as the Hula Bowl, the Coaches All America, the All America Bowl, the Blue-Gray and the Shrine East-West. He also coached the College All Stars against the NFL Champion Dallas Cowboys in the 1972 Chicago game.

At Nebraska, Devaney's teams won 101, lost 20 and tied two in 11 years, following his 35-10-5 record at Wyoming. He never had a losing season at Nebraska and he directed three undefeated teams—1965, 1970 and 1971. In 11 years, Devaney's teams went to nine post-season games, winning six and losing three. The Huskers played in the Gotham Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Sun Bowl and four times in the Orange Bowl with Devaney at the helm.

Under Devaney's outstanding leadership, too, the Cornhuskers produced 22 All America players and 72 All Big 8 selections in the past ten years.

Devaney played football as an end at Alma College in Michigan, graduating with a B.S. Degree in 1939.

After starting his coaching career at Big Beaver, Mich., High, Devaney moved to Keego Harbor and Saginaw before spending seven years at Alpena High where his teams had a 52-9-0 record. He then joined Biggle Munn, and later Duffy Daugherty, at Michigan State before becoming head coach at Wyoming in 1957.

Devaney is married to his college sweetheart, the former Phyllis Wiley. His son, Mike, and daughter Patricia, are both graduates of the University of Nebraska. He's a grandfather, too, with Mike's family including a daughter and a son.

FACTS ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

A Brief History-

The University of Nebraska, now an institution of three major components—the University of Nebraska–Lincoln, the University of Nebraska at Omaha and University of Nebraska Medical Center, Omaha—and a collection of agricultural experiment stations and related offices across the state, was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 and held its first classes in 1871 in a 3-story brick building on the outskirts of Lincoln.

At its chartering, the University was committed to instruct in agriculture, the "mechanic arts," and military tactics by the terms of the Land-Grant College Act of 1862 to which the Legislature subscribed. These special endeavors, however, were made parts of the total University program with the result that Nebraska, unlike some of its neighbors, has had but one major institution of higher education.

The early years were fraught with Internal ideological conflicts, with financial problems and with shortages of collegiate students. The University not only survived without interruption, it managed to establish the first program of graduate education west of the Mississippi in the mid-1880s. By 1909 it had attained membership in the select Association of American Universities, a tribute to the high quality of its faculty and scholastic programs.

The University of Nebraska–Lincoln now has 10 Colleges, plus three Schools and many other programs. Thirty-nine doctoral level, 61 masters, 110 undergraduate and 15 pre-professional areas of study are offered.

Lack of financial support forced the University in 1888 to close the Medical College it had opened in Lincoln five years earlier. In 1902, the University reentered the field of medical education, taking over the Omaha Medical College. This became the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha.

Since the adoption of the Nebraska constitution in 1875, the University has been governed by an elected Board of Regents. In 1968, pursuant to legislative action and a city-wide election in Omaha, the Board of Regents was made responsible for governance of the former municipal University of Omaha, renamed the University of Nebraska at Omaha. In 1970, the number of Regents was increased from six to eight. This number was increased again in 1974, when a representative of the student body from each of the three campuses became a non-voting member.

In 1971, the chief executive officer of the University was given the title of President. The executive heads of the three components, the University of Nebraska–Lincoln, the University of Nebraska at Omaha, and the University of Nebraska Medical Center, were accorded the titles of Chancellor and Vice President.

RECORDS AND ALL-TIME SCORERS

JERRY FORT

IS NEBRASKA'S ALL TIME LEADING SCORER

On Dec. 27, 1972, when Nebraska met Iowa State during the first round of the Big 8 Preseason Tournament in Kansas City, then freshman guard Jerry Fort started his first game as a Husker. And what was about to follow would keep Cornhusker basketball fans cheering for the next three years.

Fort ended his Nebraska career last March as the Huskers' all time leading scorer with 1,882 points. He was also the Cornhuskers only three time All Big 8 performer.

He holds every freshman, sophomore and junior scoring record, but ironically, he couldn't break the senior mark of 556-points, or a 21.4 average, set by Marvin Stewart in 1970-71.

His other major scoring record is the most points scored in one game by a Nebraska player. On Feb. 22, 1975 in Lincoln when Nebraska beat Missouri 80-77, Fort scored 40-points and broke the old mark of 38-points, set by Tom Russell vs. Kansas on Feb. 21, 1962.

Not just a scorer, Fort also set the Husker assist mark last year against Northwestern. Not only did he have 11 assists, but he also scored 25-points and hauled down five rebounds to help beat the 'Cats.

Before his graduation from college last May, he was drafted in pro basketball's third round by the World Champion Boston Celtics. However, before he reported to camp, Fort suffered a broken leg in a pickup game. Unfortunately, the leg never healed in time and he didn't make the club.

"Even though Jerry didn't make the pros this year, I don't have to worry about him rebounding from that disappointment," NU head coach Joe Cipriano said. "Because on the court he was the most exciting Nebraska player I've ever coached and off the court, he was a class individual all the way."

TOM SCANTLEBURY 6-2 . . . 180 . . . Guard Oakland, Calif.

An electrifying, ball-handling wizard, Tom led the Huskers in scoring his junior and senior years. Able to run with reckless abandon, yet stop and put up the smooth jump shot. A great crowd pleaser, the capability to break a game wide open was always with the graduate of Oakland Skyline High. Second team All Big 8 his senior year. Begins his third year as a high school basketball coach at Ft. Calhoun, Neb.

NATE BRANCH 6-4...195...Guard-Forward Palo Alto, Calif.

One of the quickest basketball players to ever perform for the University of Nebraska. A fine musiclan, Nate organized his own combo on campus and played nightclub spots during the off season. He just recently wrote a new theme song for the Harlem Globetrotters, as he played and toured with the basketball magicians. One of Joe Cipriano's first recruits at NU. His great breakaway speed made him the nucleus of Cipriano's run & gun style of ball.

LEROY CHALK

6-7...218...Center Big Sandy, Texas

Small for a center at 6-7, Leroy nearly always had to compete against taller opponents. But using his quickness and tremendous strength, he dominated the boards for three years. As a sophomore, he set a new single-season rebounding record with 257 caroms and as a senior, broke his old record with 290. He wound up with 782 career rebounds, easily smashing Rex Ekwall's old mark of 692.
